

I am opposed to relaxing regulations regarding broadcast ownership. I agree with Senator Cantwell's statement: "I believe that media ownership policies should support freedom of speech, promote diversity and localism, as well as foster fair economic competition. The charter of the Federal Communications Commission is to ensure that communications policy is managed for the public interest, and not merely for private profits. To that end, I am very concerned about proposals to relax media ownership limits."